

“A fashionable history behind the clothes, culture and the women who wore them”

The Modern Classic Society is a non for profit 501(3) c organization currently seeking gift in kind and monetary donations. All donations are 100% tax deductible.

The TMCS, established in 2017 is a small non for profit historical society and fashion community located in St. Louis Missouri with a mission of preservation, research and collecting. Currently, TMCS primarily acquires donations from the St. Louis Metropolitan area, thus adding to the history, fashion and culture of St. Louis women, embracing all walks of life.

The Modern Classic Society existence is dependent upon many resources to support the vision and mission while continuing expansion, preservation and management of the historic costume collection.

- ❖ Gift in kind donations include all types of Vintage era, early 1900s -1990s women’s wear and other related artifacts related to fashion, history and culture.
- ❖ Monetary donations are needed for consumables and/or any other necessary resources/services associated management of TMCS historic costume collection.

TMCS is a fashion community creating an awareness of women’s history through style & dress and culture; past, present and future.

TMCS Contact Information

Email: lisa@themodernclassicsociety.com

Phone: 314.368.4042

Website: themodernclassicsociety.com

Dr. Lisa S. Thompson, Founder

“A fashion historian, conscious curator of women’s wear, history, culture and a rebel against today’s disposable garment industry “